

2.13 KINDS OF OPERATION

Flights are permissible in accordance with visual flight rules.

Minimum Equipment, Flight and Navigation Instruments:

Airspeed Indicator

Altimeter

Attitude Gyro (Artificial Horizon) (Mandatory for Night VFR operations in EASA member countries)

Magnetic Compass

Turn and Bank Indicator (not mandatory for Day-VFR only)

Instrument Panel and Map Lighting (not mandatory for Day-VFR only)

Directional Gyro (not mandatory for Day-VFR only)

Minimum Equipment, Powerplant Instruments:

Fuel Quantity Indicator

Fuel Pressure Indicator

Oil Pressure Indicator

Oil Temperature Indicator

Cylinder Head Temperature Indicator

Tachometer

Voltmeter

Ammeter

Generator Warning Light

Minimum Equipment, Lighting:

Instrument Lighting (not mandatory for Day-VFR only)

Landing Light (not mandatory for Day-VFR only)

Position and Anti-Collision Lights (not mandatory for Day-VFR only)

NOTE

Additional equipment may be required for compliance with specific operational or specific national requirements. It is the operators responsibility to ensure compliance with any such specific equipment requirements.