

One of a flight instructor's best days is when he solos an aspiring pilot.

This traditional 'rite of passage' consists of 3 (back-to-back) unassisted takeoffs and full stop landings.

Here are photos of my recent solo students joining the aviator ranks:

Mark J. initial solo in N952TS (Diamond DA20-C1) at 50R on 8 Aug, 2012